Senator Sewell. A dispatch to the New York World from

Trenton, N. J., yesterday, says: The fight for the United States senatorship is now eight-cornered, as former Senator Edward

C. Stokes is now a candidate, announced by his supporters in Cumberland county. This brings additional confusion to the south

Jersey situation. The ex-senator has quietly bided his time and allowed all the aspirants to announce themselves so he could size up the situation before he formally de-

It is said that tomorrow the major part of the members of the two houses will meet in the state house for the purpose of getting some idea of the situation. All the candidates will be here. Ex-Senator Stokes has scattered support all over the state, and if he can depend on all the votes that have been promised him he will be the one candidate against the field.

Senator Stokes was in Trenton today, and he and the governor had a long confer-ence, but neither would give any opinion

Mr. Sadlier was formerly an officer in the National Molders' Association, he was the headlines of the article as quoted above inventor of several processes for treating steel, and for many years he has been a prominent factor in labor circles in this and the impression evidently intended to be made in the minds of the public that the drunkenness and disorder referred to in the lutions previously acted on by citizens of Brightwood, resulted from the passage by Congress of the so-called anti-canteen law, some business in the foundry, and in a half he was met by Kenney, who had been lying in wait for him. There was no eye-witnesses to the shooting. Mr. Sadlier's and is not true. "The passage of the anti-canteen law did not and could not have any effect on the drinking habits of the inmates of the Soi-diers' Home in question, because that Home has never had a canteen, as is shown by the correspondence between the committee and Lieut. Gen. Miles, president of the board of commissioners of the Home." The letter from Gen. Miles, which was read, was as follows: effect. One had pierced his heart, another had entered the body to the left of the heart and had grazed it; the third struck him in the stomach. The others caused only slight wounds. Mr. Sadiler was fifty years old. "I am in receipt of your letter of the 20th ultimo asking whether at any time there was a canteen at the United States Bol-diers' Home near this city, at which beer or other intoxicating liquors were sold to the inmates, &c. In reply I have the honor to inform you that there never has been a canteen at the Home, and the sale of beer or other intoxicating liquors has never been allowed there, and by act of Congress, approved February 28, 1891, the sale of in-approved February 28, 1891, the sale of intoxicating liquors within one mile of the Home was prohibited. The regulations of the Home also prohibit inmates from introducing any kind of liquors within its inclosures upon penalty of dismissal from the institution."

On behalf of the league Mr. Canfield presented President Ewin a handsome pot of azaleas as a testimonial of the appreciation by the members of his leadership against the saloon. The gift was accepted in a brief reply to Mr. Canfield's address, and the league then adjourned to the third and the league then adjourned to the third Monday in January.
